U. S. Navy lieutenant tops winter quarter graduates

Lt. Leo H. Ostwald Jr.

A Navy lieutenant who will earn his master of science degrees in physical oceanography and engineering acoustics is being recognized as the top graduate at the Naval Postgraduate School's winter quarter graduation at 1:30 p.m., today, in an outside ceremony at Spruance Plaza.

Lt. Leo H. Ostwald Jr. won the Monterey Peninsula Council Navy League Award for Highest Academic Achievement, presented quarterly to the graduating Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard or National Oceanographic Atmospheric Administration student who has excelled academically. (Other award winners are listed below.)

Guest speaker will be Ambassador Ronald F. Lehman II, director of the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency since 1989.

Lehman was the chief U.S. negotiator on Strategic Nuclear Arms (START) at the 1986-88 U.S./Soviet nuclear and space arms talks in Geneva. He has also served in the White House as deputy assistant to the president for national security affairs and has held several other key positions on the national security council staff.

NPS will graduate 246 students this quarter, awarding two doctorate degrees, four aeronautical and astronautical engineer degrees, two mechanical engineer degrees, three master of arts degrees, 239 master of science degrees and one bachelor of science degree. Five students earned dual degrees.

Graduates include 174 Navy officers, 14 Marine Corps officers, 18 Army officers, five Air Force officers, five Coast Guard officers, 18 International officers and 10 DOD civilians.

OSSC SCHOLARSHIPS COLLEGE FUNDS

The OSSC is offering scholarships to dependents of military personnel assigned or attached to NPS.

Applicants may be an undergraduate or postgraduate student pursuing a degree on a full-time or part-time basis. Each recipient will receive at least $500.

On behalf of the USPA and IRA Educational Foundation, the OSSC is offering one $1,000 scholarship to a dependent child of an active, retired or deceased military member from any branch of the service. The applicant must be an undergraduate entering their first or subsequent year of study.

Scholarship awards are based on overall merit, academic promise and participation in extracurricular activities. Applications are available now at the Family Service Center, Herrmann Hall-039, or by calling the scholarship chairman at 655-3976. The applications must be received by Wed., Apr. 22.

For more information, call the scholarship Chairman or the OSSC president at 372-8102.

PAPER RECYCLING

NPS has a paper recycling program. Donations will generate funds for MWR and reduce solid waste in landfills. To have paper picked up, call ext. 2681.
